

Contents

ANNOTATED CONTENTS	ix
PREFACE	xv
CONTRIBUTORS	xvii
ISSUES IN JUSTICE, EQUITY, AND EQUALITY
1. Racial Diversity in Public Schools: Has the Supreme Court Dealt a Blow to Integration?	1
Should school systems promote racial diversity in individual schools?	5
Should school systems seek to promote socioeconomic integration in individual schools?	6
Is the focus on diversity interfering with efforts to improve education in all schools?	9
Background	10
The ‘Common School’	10
‘Elusive’ Equality	14
‘Diversity’ Challenged	16
Current Situation	18
‘Resegregation’ Seen	18
Legal Options Eyed	19
Outlook	20
‘Minimal Impact’?	20
Notes	21
Bibliography	22
2. No Child Left Behind: Is the Law Improving Student Performance?			25
Has No Child Left Behind raised student achievement?			28
Are too many schools being labeled “in need of improvement”?			29
Is No Child Left Behind improving the quality of teaching?			32
Is No Child Left Behind adequately funded?			34
Background			37
Federal Reforms			37
Achievement Gaps			40
Current Situation			41
States Push Back			41
Teachers’ Union Sues			41
War of Words			43
Outlook			43
Reform Unlikely?			43
Notes			44
Bibliography			45
3. Special Education: Do Students With Disabilities Get the Help They Need?			49
Should the federal government spend more to educate disabled students?			52
Does the availability of federal funding for special education encourage the overdiagnosis of learning disabilities?			55

iv CONTENTS

Has IDEA increased discipline problems in public schools?	57	Current Situation	111
Background	60	Federal Support	111
IDEA Aids States	60	Vouchers Link	111
Escalating Costs	60	Steps Forward and Back	113
Revamping the Law	61	Outlook	113
Current Situation	63	Just a Fad?	113
Paying the Bill	63	Notes	114
Outlook	64	Bibliography	115
Reauthorization Fight?	64	6. Home Schooling Debate: Is the Movement Undermining Public Education?	119
Support from both presidential candidates	67	Should the government regulate home schooling?	123
Notes	67	Should the public-school system support home schooling?	125
Bibliography	68	Does home schooling threaten the fundamental American concept of universal public education?	127
4. Fixing Urban Schools: Has No Child Left Behind Helped Minority Students?	71	Background	130
Has the No Child Left Behind law helped urban students?	74	‘Common Schools’	130
Should governments make schools more racially and economically diverse?	76	Rise of Reformers	130
Are teachers prepared to teach successfully in urban classrooms?	78	States’ Rights	131
Background	79	Current Situation	133
Educating the Poor	79	Nationwide Movement	133
Two Tracks	81	Into the Mainstream?	134
Minority Schools	84	Outlook	136
Poor in School	86	‘Saber Rattling’	136
Current Situation	88	Limited Growth?	137
Congress Divided	88	Notes	137
Retooling NCLB?	89	Bibliography	138
Outlook	90	7. Single-Sex Education: Do All-Boy and All-Girl Schools Enhance Learning?	141
Agreeing to Disagree	90	Does single-sex education enhance learning?	144
Notes	90	Do single-sex schools reinforce gender stereotypes?	145
Bibliography	92	Do single-sex schools help or hurt the goal of gender equity?	146
5. Charter Schools: Will They Improve or Hurt Public Education?	95	Background	147
Are charter schools harming the traditional public school system?	100	‘Tide of Coeducation’	147
Do charter schools foster innovation and achievement?	101	Gender Equity	150
Should private companies be allowed to run charter schools?	103	Single-Sex Revival	153
Background	107	Current Situation	155
Born on a Napkin	107	Starting New Schools	155
States Climb Aboard	108	Revising Federal Rules?	156
Creative Resources	109	Outlook	159
Seeking Accreditation	110	A New Era?	159

Notes	159
Bibliography	161
8. Religion in Schools: Should the Courts Allow More Spiritual Expression?	163
Are barriers to prayer in schools too rigid?	165
Are Christian groups “sneaking” religion into schools?	167
Should taxpayer-supported vouchers help parents send their children to private or religious schools?	169
Background	172
Colonial Intolerance	172
‘Common’ Schools	173
Court Decisions	173
Conservative Christians	175
Current Situation	175
Limits on Prayer	175
Voucher Battles	176
Outlook	177
Bush’s Impact	177
Notes	180
Bibliography	180
ISSUES IN TEACHING AND LEARNING
9. Students Under Stress: Do Schools Assign Too Much Homework?	183
Are students today under more academic pressure than in past generations?	186
Are schools assigning too much homework?	188
Are high-stakes tests putting too much pressure on students?	190
Background	193
Schooling Expands	193
Different Visions	194
Cold War Fears	194
Bulging Backpacks?	195
Current Situation	198
Reevaluating Homework	198
Testing the Tests	200
Outlook	201
Learning to Teach	201
Notes	202
Bibliography	204
10. Gender and Learning: Are There Innate Differences Between the Sexes?	207
Is there really a gender gap in math and science?	212
Are there “innate differences” between males and females in math and science aptitude?	214
Is enough being done to encourage women in science and math?	216
Background	220
Women in Science	220
Growing Sexism	221
‘Weak-minded’ Women	222
Gender-Equity Fight	222
Current Situation	225
Discrimination or Choice?	225
More Women Scientists	226
Outlook	226
Crisis Ahead?	226
Notes	227
Bibliography	229
11. AP and IB Programs: Can They Raise U.S. High-School Achievement?	233
Are AP and IB programs effective?	236
Should AP and IB be more broadly available?	238
Can advanced high-school courses close the achievement gap?	240
Background	242
It’s Not Academic	242
Starting Small	246
Reform Movement	247
States Back AP, IB	248
Current Situation	249
States Resist	249
Outlook	252
Challenge for All?	252
Notes	252
Bibliography	254
12. Teaching Math and Science: Are Students Being Prepared for the Technological Age?	257
Are U.S. students proficient in math and science?	261
Are U.S. math and science curricula adequate?	263

Are U.S. math and science teachers well trained?	265	Current Situation	322
Background	267	Big Business	322
Wake-up Call	267	Social Networking	323
The ‘New Math’	268	Libraries Log On	323
‘A Nation at Risk’	268	Saying Less?	323
Setting Standards	270	Outlook	324
Current Situation	272	Testing the Hypothesis	324
Congress OKs Testing	272	Notes	325
Improving Teachers	272	Bibliography	327
What Works?	274
Revisiting the Standards	274	ISSUES IN SCHOOL ENVIRONMENT
Evolution Debate	275	15. Teacher Shortages: Should States Ease Certification Standards?	329
Outlook	275	Should “fast-track” or alternative- certification programs be used to reduce teacher shortages?	332
Funding Questioned	275	Would raising teacher pay or overhauling the teacher-compensation system solve the teacher-shortage problem?	334
Notes	276	Background	337
Bibliography	278	Early Reforms	337
13. Reading Crisis? Do Today’s Youth Read Less Than Past Generations?	281	First Shortages	337
Do young people read less than in the past?	284	Lowering Standards	339
Is there a literacy crisis?	286	Current Situation	342
Will harm be done if new technologies crowd out traditional reading?	288	Revamping ESEA	342
Background	290	States’ Efforts	343
Breaking the Code	290	Outlook	344
Reading Truce?	294	Bush’s Plan	344
Current Situation	296	Notes	346
Boys, Teens Lag	296	Bibliography	347
Online Literacy	297
Cuts in Reading Programs	299	16. Discipline in Schools: Are Zero-Tolerance Policies Fair?	351
Outlook	300	Have zero-tolerance policies made schools safer?	354
Future of Reading	300	Is racism responsible for high suspension rates among minorities?	357
Notes	301	Should students have more legal rights in discipline cases?	359
Bibliography	302	Background	360
14. Video Games: Do They Have Educational Value?	305	Rise of Zero Tolerance	360
Does playing video games improve literacy?	309	Violence and Bullying	364
Are video games addictive?	312	Teacher Education	365
Do video games prepare young people for the future job market?	313	Current Situation	365
Background	317	‘Scarlet Letter’	365
Pinball Precursor	317
Equity Gap?	318
Gender Gap Narrows	319

SAVE Act	369	Background	406
State Proposals	369	Early Research	406
Outlook	369	Changing Society	409
Zero Tolerance?	369	Learned Behavior	410
Notes	370	Current Situation	411
Bibliography	372	Christian Opposition	411
		Federal Law	414
17. Zero Tolerance: Is Mandatory Punishment in Schools Unfair?	375	Outlook	415
Are zero-tolerance policies effective?	378	Going to Court	415
Are zero-tolerance policies constitutional?	380	Notes	416
Are zero-tolerance policies fairly and consistently applied?	381	Bibliography	417
Background	383	19. Cheating in Schools: Are High-Stakes Tests to Blame?	421
‘We Need to Get Tough’	383	Are students today more dishonest than earlier generations?	424
‘Broken-Windows’ Approach	385	Should schools adopt honor codes to reduce cheating?	426
Is Violence Declining?	385	Should educators be more aggressive in stopping cheating?	427
Current Situation	388	Background	431
Alternative Schools	388	Ancient Crib Sheets	431
Amending IDEA	390	Values Confusion	433
Zero-Zero Tolerance	392	Feminism and Multiculturalism	433
Outlook	393	Current Situation	434
Ebb and Flow	393	High-Stakes Testing	434
Notes	394	Defending the Tests	436
Bibliography	394	Preventive Measures	438
		Character Education Gains Supporters	438
18. Bullying: Are Schools Doing Enough to Stop the Problem?	397	Outlook	438
Is bullying a serious problem?	400	More Cheating?	438
Is enough being done to curtail bullying?	403	Notes	440
Are school anti-bullying programs effective?	405	Bibliography	440