

Problem pages – girls: focus on relationships

Dear Agony Aunt,

I am being bullied by three older girls who keep taking my money and calling me a fat cow. I am scared and depressed. What should I do?

Shakira

Dear Shakira,

Dear Agony Aunt,

My best friend has gone behind my back and is sleeping with my boyfriend. He told me but she doesn't know. What do you think I should do?

Gemma

Dear Gemma,

Dear Agony Aunt,

My boyfriend keeps on pressuring me to have sex with him. I don't mind fooling around but I don't want to have sex with him. Can you help?

Karen

Dear Karen,

Photocopiable:

Developing Emotional Literacy with Teenagers, 2nd edition © Tina Rae, 2013 (SAGE)

Dear Agony Aunt,

My two best friends sleep around and everyone calls them slags. I feel angry because they are both really nice and I think it's up to them to do what they want to do. What should I do?

Shazia

Dear Shazia,

Dear Agony Aunt,

My mum and I used to be really close and we used to do loads of stuff together but she has no time for me now. She's got a new boyfriend and he's so annoying! I hate him! Can you help?

Sara

Dear Sara,

Dear Agony Aunt,

My little brother is blackmailing me because he saw me smoking. My dad would kill me if he found out so I have been paying my little brother off. Now, I am fed up because I never have enough money to go out. What do you advise?

Corina

Dear Corina,

Don't forget: Listen to each other and share ideas. The best solutions often result from group problem-solving.

Photocopiable:

Developing Emotional Literacy with Teenagers, 2nd edition © Tina Rae, 2013 (SAGE)