

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
About the Authors	ix
SECTION I. Understanding Student Motivation	1
Introduction: The Nature of Motivation in the Classroom	1
1. What Is Motivation to Learn?	13
2. How Do Teacher Beliefs Influence Motivation?	43
Assumptions About Teaching and Learning	44
Beliefs About Motivation in the Classroom	51
Teacher Stance	59
WARM Teacher Stance	61
Section I Conclusion	65
SECTION II. Classroom Practices and Strategies	67
Introduction	67
Motivation in the Classroom: Teacher Survey	70
Motivation in the Classroom: Student Survey	71
Survey Scores	72
3. Promoting Student Voice	73
Practices and Strategies That Promote Student Voice	75
Chapter Summary	91
Survey Questions	93
4. Designing Meaningful Learning Tasks	95
Meaningful Learning	96
Integrating Elements of Meaningful Learning Into Classroom Instruction	104
Chapter Summary	111

5. Promoting Challenge With Success	116
The Roles of Success and Challenge	117
Designing Appropriate Challenge	117
Balancing Challenge and Success	122
Engaging in Formative Assessment Practices	123
Providing Timely and Useful Feedback	123
More Strategies for Balancing Challenge and Success	124
Chapter Summary	129
6. Building Positive Relationships Around Learning	135
Relationships Matter for Motivation	136
Strategies and Approaches for
Positive Student-Teacher Relationships	138
Strategies for Supporting Positive Peer Relationships	147
Student-Centered Discussion Protocol	152
Chapter Summary	153
Section III. Maintaining and Sustaining Motivation	157
Introduction	157
7. Sustaining Motivation Over Time	160
Chapter Summary	171
8. The Social Context of Motivation	173
Classrooms and Context	173
Chapter Summary	186
9. Maintaining Self-Motivation	189
Final Thoughts on Professional Development	199
Chapter Summary	200
Appendix	203
Glossary of Key Terms	205
References	208
Index	224